

Oleg Pertsovskiy, Chief operating officer of the Energy Efficiency Cluster of the Skolkovo foundation, responsible for all the activities related to financial and non-financial support of Skolkovo portfolio start-ups. Holds Master degrees from National Research University "Higher School of Economics" (Moscow) and University Paris-1, Sorbonne. Before joining Skolkovo worked in Siberian Coal Energy Company (SUEK), one of the world top 10 coal companies, where he was a Head of Strategy and Risk Management Department being responsible inter alia for search, analysis and development of innovative technologies. After that he was a Deputy CFO responsible for strategy in Siberian generating company that united all the power generating assets of SUEK. In 2003-2008 worked in Russian vertically integrated power monopoly RAO UES of Russia as a Deputy Head of economic planning and analysis Department and Advisor to Deputy CEO being responsible for long term planning, macroeconomic analysis, implementation of Kyoto protocol mechanisms, also was actively involved in Russian power sector reform.